Committee Names Three on Which Prizes Are Awarded by Town Criers Club

"BISMARCK SERVES" BEST

Club Will Not Adopt a Slogan, However, Until Next Meeting, Seeking Opinion

Approximately 300 slogans for Bismarck were submitted in the slogan contest held by the Town Criers club. A report was made last night to the Town Criers meeting in the McKenzie hotel. The club tentatively adopted one slogan and awarded prizes, but postponed final action until next meeting in order to ascertain general sentiment as to the slogan awarded first prize.

First prize was awarded to Roy F. Dow, of Bismarck, who submitted as a slogan: "Bismarck Serves." He added as explanation that this meant in business, socially, to shoppers, tourists, for conventions, pleasure seekers, etc. First prize is $15. Second prize was awarded to John Bortell, of Bismarck, who submitted the slogan: "Try Bismarck First." Third prize went to Hulda Sangberg, of Wilton, who submitted the slogan, "Bismarck, Where Two Ways Meet," it being the recommendation of the committee that it used the slogan be changed to "Bismarck, Where All Ways Meet."

A large number of slogans were submitted by students in the local schools. The slogan of Frances Halloran was held to be the best of those submitted from the schools and a special award of five theater tickets was made to her. Her slogan was: "East or West, Bismarck is Best."

The selection of the first three slogans was made by the presidents of the Commercial, Rotary and Town Criers clubs and the Town Criers voted on first, second and third places, respectively. The school slogan was awarded by a committee of Town Criers.

Among the slogans submitted were the following: Sunny City of the Slope, Best Between Borders, Where the East Ends, Bismarck Busy Mart, Pride of the Northwest, Gem of the Occident, Bismarck Hits the Mark, Bismarck the Lighthouse City, Port of the Plains, Kernel of the Wheat Fields, Capital of the Cattle Country, Buy, Build and Boost Bismarck, Bigger, Better, Brighter Bismarck, The Magnet of Prosperity, Honorbright Bismarck's Alright, Voice of the West, Watch Our Mark—Bismarck, The Midwest Wonder City, Flower of the West.

The committee on coordination of charitable activities in the city reported that a meeting had been held with other organizations and that the matter would be carried further. S. A. Floren was introduced as a new member of the club.

The club held its first discussion of the advertising course which it is to study during the winter.

PROFESSOR AT
A. C. RESIGNS

The State Board of Administration has announced the resignation of Prof. W. R. Porter, professor of marketing and organization at the State Agricultural College at Fargo. The resignation became effective at the end of the year. Prof. Porter requesting that he be relieved of all duties with the school, December 31, 1921.

The board also announced it had approved the request of President John Lee Coulter that an immediate search be instituted for a man to take a place that will be created in which the new man will head the instruction in agricultural economics, farm accounting, commodity costs, marketing co-operation and rural credits. The board also announced it had approved the plan of Dr. Coulter to co-ordinate instruction in the above branches in the school of economics, experiment station and extension division. Dr. Coulter's own particular knowledge of the field will be of great assistance to the school in the opinion of the board, not only in the selection of the man, but also in reorganization of instruction.

BLUE SKY BOARD

BETROTHED TO EX-KAISER?

Frau Von Roehow is reported betrothed to Ex-Kaiser Wilhelm. She is now his guest at Doorn, Holland, according to German newspapers. She is the wealthy widow of a colonel in the Danzig Hussars and first met the kaiser during military maneuvers.

NAVAL EXPERTS
REPORT NEARS
COMPLETION

Agreement Reached By Subcommittee on Chinese Tariffs For Conference

Washington, Jan. 4.—(By Associated Press)—The practical completion of the report to be submitted by the committee of naval experts to the naval committee of the armament conference and agreement of the subcommittee on Chinese tariffs on a 5 per cent effective basis were two important developments today in the conference situation.

The naval committee may be called to meet this afternoon or tomorrow, it was said, to receive the reports of the experts which will embody precise definitions of the replacement schedules as well as the exact method of scrapping warships which are to be eliminated from the navies of the signatory powers.

SEE FORWARD STEP.
Washington, Jan. 4.—An important step toward agreement by the powers on the armament proposal to prohibit use of submarines against merchant vessels was seen today in the proposals accepted in principle by the French delegation, subject to a discussion of the precise language of the declaration. Although acceptances still are awaited from the governments of Italy and Japan there was indication that neither of these parties would interpose serious objection if the proposal receives the full approval of France and it was believed the declaration would be prepared to resume discussion of the matter today at a meeting of the full naval committee of the conference.

SEEK LOCATION OF HENRY MEIS

Does anyone know of Henry Meis? His mother has not heard from him for months and is worried about him, according to a letter received by the postmaster. The letter, which is from Z. M. Meis, a brother, says that he was last heard from in Aberdeen, S. D., on his way to North Dakota to harvest. His description follows: German descent, third generation U. S. 6 feet in height, 155 to 195 pounds, red-faced, sandy or brown hair, blue eyes, strong face, dark prominent nose, aged 22 years. It is asked that information concerning him be addressed to Mrs. H. K. Meis, care rural route No. 5, Tecumseh, Oklahoma.

FLOUR PRICES
BREAK SHARPLY

Minneapolis, Jan. 4.—Arute weakness in the wheat market yesterday resulted in a break of 25 to 30 cents a barrel in flour prices at the largest milling companies here, making new low figures in flour prices in about six years. Family patents today were quoted at $6.75 to $6.80 a barrel when in 98-pound cotton sacks in carload lots.

ALIENISTS TO DISCUSS BURCH

Los Angeles, Jan. 4.—Alienists summoned by the state were expected to testify sometime today in the trial of Arthur Burch for the murder of J. E. Kennedy. Through these alienists' testimony the prosecution expected to combat opinions voiced by experts on mental disorders called by the defense who said that Burch was insane and if he killed Kennedy was not liable for the nature of the act.

N. D. MAN HELD
AS RUM RUNNER

Minneapolis, Jan. 4.—Federal agents have in their possession 25 cases of bottled embossed whiskey valued at $4,000 which they allege was smuggled into the United States from Canada, as a result of a raid last night on a residence in St. Paul. Five men were arrested and an automobile confiscated.

The whiskey was of a Canadian variety and was concealed in the tonneau of the machine. Alphonse Baune, Devils Lake, N. D., was among the five men arrested.

COUNTY TO PAY
PART OF COST
OF UNDERPASS

Resolution Adopted to Aid in Proposed New Road to the Bridge

PATTERSON IS REELECTED

Heads Commissioners Again, Being Elected at Annual Meeting Held Today

The Burleigh county board of commissioners, in annual session today, re-elected E. G. Patterson chairman of the board and adopted a resolution agreeing to pay part of the cost of an underpass of the Northern Pacific railway in the proposed new road to the Missouri river bridge.

Mr. Patterson, who was in the jury room when the commissioners held their meeting and re-elected him chairman, has been chairman of the board for 12 years and has been a county commissioner for 15 years.

The resolution adopted by the board providing for the payment of part of the cost of the underpass requires that the board had previously appropriated $32,000 to pay the county's share of the cost of construction of the proposed road to the bridge, that since the project has been made federal aid project No. 136 that the highway commission had entered into negotiations with the Northern Pacific railway and the government on the cost of construction of the underpass, that the government will pay one-fourth of the cost, and the Northern Pacific will pay one-half.

The resolution then authorized the county to pay one-fourth of the cost, not exceeding $6,500, and the chairman of the board was authorized to sign a contract executed between the various parties.

SCHOOL BURNS;
LOSS $75,000

Grand Forks, Jan. 4.—The public school building at Park River, N. D., valued at $75,000, half covered by insurance, with nearly all its contents destroyed by fire Monday. School was not in session at the time of the fire.

BURY SOLDIERS WITH ROPES ON NECKS, IS CLAIM

Testimony Given Before Senate Investigating Committee in Washington

Washington, Jan. 4.—P. Hubbard, of New York, employed by the American Graves registration service in preparing bodies of American soldiers for shipment from France, told a senate committee today that of three bodies disinterred he found a rope around the neck of each and a black cap over each face.

Called as the first witness at the committee investigating charges by Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, that American soldiers were hanged without trial in France, Hubbard declared there was nothing in the coffin by which the bodies could be identified.

"The bodies were identified by the cross on the outside of the coffin and the black caps were not removed before the bodies were shipped to the United States for burial," Hubbard testified.

RECEIVER FOR 4 BANKS NAMED

John Valley, of Grand Forks, has been appointed receiver of the closed banks in the Grand Forks district created in the consolidation plan of the state banking board and guaranty fund commission. He will be receiver for the following banks: State Bank of Milton; Peoples State Bank of Grand Forks; Citizens State Bank of Bathgate and the Bank of Mowbray. He succeeds P. N. Ryerson, receiver assigned and deputy state examiners aligned to the other banks.

DAIL RESUMES ITS DEBATE

Eamonn De Valera's Version of Treaty is Presented to Dail For Consideration

Belfast, Jan. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—Six deaths have resulted from the present series of disorders in Belfast, one of the fatalities being that of a child who was shot while in its mother's arms. Fighting continued last night, the heaviest being in the York street area which comes under the 8 o'clock curfew law.

Dublin, Jan. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—On the re-assembling of the Dail Eireann today the new version of Eamonn DeValera's amendment was distributed to the members. It proposes a treaty of amity and association between Ireland and the government of Great Britain and of the other states of the British commonwealth.

HALF EXPRESS OPINION.

Dublin, Jan. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—When the Dail reassembled today, 59 of its members, nearly half, expressed their views on the Irish peace treaty. Between private and public sittings the Dail has thus far devoted nine days to debate.

Although the list of speakers is still far from exhausted it is apparent that every argument has been brought forward and it is believed that henceforth the speeches will be short.

Hope for a decision tomorrow or Friday at the latest, was freely expressed today. As the treaty fighting nears the end the opposition is becoming increasingly bitter. The atmosphere at yesterday's session became tense at times and the speeches by representatives of both factions were more frequently broken than heretofore by challenging interruptions.

SHARP ANTAGONISM.

London, Jan. 4.—Continuation of the sharp antagonism by the advocates and opponents of the Irish peace treaty was what mainly impressed English newspaper correspondents watching the proceedings in the Dail yesterday. The writers agreed that the recess had done nothing to alter the respective attitudes of the members and said it was evident as soon as the sessions began that Monday's rumors of some possible surprise making for unanimity had no foundation in fact.

FIND 2 WOMEN
DEAD IN HOUSE

Police of Aberdeen Investigating Cause of Tragedy

Aberdeen, S. D., Jan. 4.—The authorities today were investigating the cause of the death of two women and the illness of two men who were found in a house last night. Police said they had not determined whether liquor or fumes from a stove were responsible for the tragedy.

The dead are: Miss Louise Waltman and Miss Effie Fulkner.

John Keller and Merle Fulkner are in a hospital in a serious condition.

They are under police guard and will be questioned today regarding the affair.

The bodies were discovered late last night after the mother of one of the girls had asked the police to search for her daughter, missing for two days. Clues obtained by the officers led them to a house which had not been occupied for some time.

DOUGLAS WANTS A LIGHT PLANT

The people of the town of Douglas, a thriving town of Ward county, are using candles, lamps or any other method of obtaining light. The local electric plant burned. The owner, Wm. Johnson, carried no insurance. Citizens immediately proposed that the town take over the poles and equipment not burned and build a new plant. Representative Andrew Johnson came to Bismarck in an effort to secure $5,000 worth of bonds to the board of university and school lands with which to rebuild the plant.

CONDITION OF

St. Paul, Jan. 4.—No change was reported today in the condition of Clarence Miller, who was operated upon for appendicitis. He was former congressman from Duluth and is secretary of the Republican national committee. His condition is said to be very critical.

Between 1912 and 1919 nearly $4,000,000,000 was added to railway property values in the United States.

MORE AUTOS IN 1921 THAN IN PREVIOUS YEAR

Approximately 1,900 more automobiles were re-registered with the state motor vehicle department during 1921 than in 1920, according to E. P. Crain, registrar, in a report made today. Fees in 1921, however, are less than in 1920, because of many registrations of used cars.

Figures for 1921 follow: Cars and trucks registered, 92,643; re-registrations or transfers, 4,361; passenger cars, 90,300; trucks, 2,343; motor cycles, 810; trailers, one.

Total fees collected were $638,952.45 as compared to $681,509.55 in 1920.

Total registrations in 1920 were 90,900. Under the registration for 1921 there is an automobile for every 8 persons in the state.

REDUCTION IN BANK EXPENSE
IS BEING MADE

Manager of Bank of North Dakota Says That Force Will Be Considerably Decreased

QUIT PUBLICITY BUREAU

Will Be Abolished, Although Some Bulletins Are To Be Issued By The Bank

Expenses of operation of the Bank of North Dakota are being reduced and will be considerably more in the near future through consolidation of departments and work, under the direction of Manager C. R. Green and the Industrial Commission composed of Governor Nestos, Attorney-General Johnson and Commissioner of Agriculture Kitchin.

Six employees have left the service of the banking department of the bank as the first economy move. The number will be further reduced as Mr. Green finds he can reduce it without impairing efficiency.

P. E. Halderson, former state examiner and recently a national bank examiner, has been appointed by Mr. Green to head the credits department and the bond department of the bank, the two positions being consolidated.

Mr. Green has known Mr. Halderson for years and the appointment, Mr. Green said, was made because of Mr. Halderson's ability from past connections, and was made without consultation with anyone.

The publicity bureau, which was headed by W. G. Roylance, will be discontinued. Mr. Green expects to issue a statement of the condition of the bank at regular intervals, and a bulletin will be published within a few days in which considerable information about the farm loan department will be given. However, it is not planned to issue the bulletins in such a way that it could be charged they were being used for propaganda purposes, Mr. Green declared.

The banking department of the bank will vacate the second floor of the Bank of North Dakota building and will be consolidated on the first floor. This can be accomplished by the reduction in the number of employees, Mr. Green believes. The second floor will be occupied by the farm loan department and the Industrial Commission.

Mr. Green's office will be moved from the rear of the bank to the front where easier and quicker access will be afforded business callers.

The bank will continue to "saw wood" ahead, Mr. Green emphasized. He said that the cooperation has been shown by various officials of the counties, cities and school districts with which the bank deals, and that he hopes the friendly cooperation will continue.

Mr. Green had deeply impressed officials in the capital by the quiet, business-like way in which he has taken charge of the bank.

BOARD TO BUY
SCHOOL BONDS

The board of university and school lands, in meeting here, received a report from the auditor showing that about $26,000 had accrued in the permanent school fund through interest payments, and authorized use of the money in making whole or partial payment on bond issues purchased from the Harland school district, McLean county; Nebo school district, McLean county; Nebo school district, Oliver county and the Highland school district, Logan county.

Railroad Revenues Will Be Cut Approximately 80 Million Dollars By Orders

STUDY FURTHER DECREASE

Interstate Commerce Commission to Resume Consideration of Rail Matters

New York, Jan. 4.—Freight rate reductions on farm products made voluntarily by the railroads and ordered by the Interstate Commerce Commission will cut down railroad revenues by approximately 80 million dollars, it is estimated here. The commission's order calling for a decrease of freight rates on hay, grain, grain products, and alfalfa for trans-Mississippi territory will go into effect Saturday and will add 6 1/2 per cent to the 10 per cent reduction on freight rates made effective January 1 by all railroads except those of New England.

Arrangements have been made by the commission to resume next Wednesday the inquiry upon which will be based that body's action directing further rate decreases. The investigation will not be concluded much before March 1 and it is probable that the commission will not reach a decision before April 1.

DENY LA FOLLETTE'S CHARGES

Washington, Jan. 4.—Denial of recent charges by Senator La Follette that an agreement not to push legislation to repeal the so-called Graft Inquest act of the Esch-Cummins act and to restore state control over intrastate rates was obtained from farm organizations leaders at a conference here with representatives of the railroads and of coal, steel and lumber interests was made today by W. L. Drummond, of Kansas City, chairman of the board of governors of the International Farm Congress.

Mr. Drummond, who attended the conference December 9, which was termed by Senator La Follette, declared the session was not a secret one and that the agricultural representatives held out uncompromisingly for a repeal of the guaranty clause in the transportation act and the railway executives agreed not to oppose its repeal.

The object of the conference was far as the farm organization leaders were concerned, he said, was to obtain quickly the greatest possible reduction in freight rates and to cause the correction of any condition unfair to agriculture by peaceable efforts where possible.

N. D. IMPLEMENT
DEALERS MEET
JAN. 25-26-27

Convention Will Gather in Fargo —30 Firms Have Reserved Space

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 4.—Many diversified problems are to come before the North Dakota Implement Dealers' association when that body meets in annual convention here January 25, 26 and 27. Thirty firms already have reserved space.

Chief among the problems which will occupy the attention of the implement men are the price level for their product in 1922 and what can be done to place agriculture on a profitable basis according to an outline of the program received from R. A. Lathrop, secretary of the state organization and president of the National Implement Dealers' association.

Ways and means of reducing freight rates, the dealers' opportunity to aid diversified farm operations, new federal tax laws and contract forms and provisions also are to be studied. The general exhibit of implements will be held in the Fargo auditorium. This year the convention committee has decided to eliminate the tractor parade of the exhibit.

Many prominent speakers are on the program, including Dr. W. C. Hodgson, pastor of the First Methodist church of Fargo; J. E. Eastate of Larimore, member of the North Dakota legislature, Dr. John Lee Coulter, president of the North Dakota Agricultural college; H. J. Hodge, secretary of the national association and George E. King of Kenosha, president of the state association.

WANTS TO BE CONGRESSMAN

Indications that a new hat would be shed into the political ring before the next primaries were contained in a letter to Secretary of State Thomas Hall in which Ernest J. Burnstead is in the second district, represented in Congress at this time by George M. Yung.

LIVESTOCK WILL BE CENTRAL THEME FOR FARM INSTITUTES IN NORTH DAKOTA THIS YEAR

An Advance Man Will Be Used To Advertise These Meetings

MANY GOOD SPEAKERS

Kitchen's "Official" Family Will Be Called Upon For Much
Of The Work

Farm institutes in North Dakota will not be held before the close of the many conventions held in connection with the meetings of the Tri State Grain growers. Present plans are that the first meetings will be held the Monday following the close of the Fargo sessions, January 23 and that from that date will continue until 70 or 80 institutes have been held. These institutes will be well distributed over the state, as many being held in one section as another. The average will be close to two to each county. To cover this number of institutes, two corps of instructors will be in the field from the opening date until the end, this enabling the institutes to be finished in 35 or 40 days.

Regional and sectional interests will be observed carefully in making up the programs and every effort will be made to have the subjects presented adapted to the community in which the particular institute is being held. Lecturers will be selected who are versatile enough to fit into the different programs. Community interest also will be invited in the use of local orchestras, local school choruses and musical organizations whenever this is possible.

Live stock will be the central theme of this year's institutes, and the problems of dairying, forage crops and silos will be prominent parts of the program. Potatoes will be one of the subjects in sections where this industry is under consideration. One of the companies presenting the lectures will be under the direction of Dan Willard, whose specialty is soils, and one or two of the members of the groups, which will differ at different points will have a first hand knowledge of market economics.

Publicity for these institutes will not be a haphazard proposition. Taking at least from the successful organizations in many other lines of endeavor, an advance man will be used to precede the institutes by about two weeks. His duties will be to meet the farmers, the members of the local commercial clubs, the officers of different organizations, the county agents and the heads of the local Farm Bureau organizations. He will also see that publicity material is at hand for the two weeks between his visit and the day of the institute. This man will probably be a newspaper man.

One and two day meetings will be held. Three sessions will constitute the one day meetings, while five sessions will be arranged for the two day institute. The men and women who are being included in the companies are all acquainted with North Dakota conditions. They will be able to present their information from actual first hand knowledge of how it has been accomplished in North Dakota. Members of Mr. Kitchen's official family will be called upon for some of the work. Mr. Flint and Mr. Page presenting dairying interests while Deputy Commissioner R. G. Catron and Mr. Kitchen himself on a few occasions will discuss farm operations. Both Mr. Catron and Mr. Kitchen are practical farmers and are continuing the work they have been successful in.

Dates for the different institutes have not been completed. Arrangements are being made to cooperate with some of the agricultural high schools who have already made their arrangements for holding agricultural weeks. One of these will be for Benson county at Maddock beginning February 24. It is planned, as far as possible to start on one railroad and follow it to the end, thus reducing railroad fare, cutting expenses and depending as little as possible upon cross country transportation.

For many of the institutes, instruction will be visual. The department owns its own motion picture machine. It has at its command a large supply of educational films, and these will be used as occasion demands. The machine is equipped so it can be attached to any sort of electrical current, and if this is wanting, can be run from the storage battery of an automobile.

One woman will be included in each party of lecturers. The women members of the parties will be changed frequently, but their subjects will be in each instance, the home, the garden, and poultry. While all the women who will take part in the institutes will not be named until the actual schedule of the meetings is announced, it is known that Miss Clara Larson of Valley City, Mrs. G. W. Randlett, Miss Beals and Miss Bowling will be in some of the institutes. Deputy Commissioner Catron, who is in active charge of the arrangements, has received splendid cooperation in his efforts to promote an efficient farmers institute. This cooperation has come from the agricultural college, where help has been secured in the problems of the program and the selection of speakers, and from the county agents who have been of large assistance in giving information as to the desires of the county, the particular subjects which would interest a certain constituency and advice as to transportation possibilities of certain neighborhoods.

W. AND J. AND BEARS IN TIE

East and West Battle To Scoreless Tie in Football Game

Pasadena, Cal., Jan. 3.—From out of the east the Washington and Jefferson college football team came yesterday to Pasadena and held the University of California eleven to scoreless tie on a muddy, slippery field in the annual tournament of roses East vs. West game here yesterday.

It was the first time the undefeated Golden Bears had met their equal in two seasons, they having won every game since 1919.

The game was a hard fought, even battle all the way, although the muddy field made fast footwork and accurate passing and punting impossible. The educated toe of Archie Nisbet, California fullback, kept the Bears away from the Bear's goal line time and time again. Nisbet out-kicked Brenkert, W. and J. punter, repeatedly.

California had a close call in the first quarter, when Brenkert dodged the Bear tacklers and after a 49-yard run planted the ball behind the westerner's goal. The score was not allowed, however, as Captain Russell Steg, the president's all-American tackle, was off-side when the play started.

Both teams drove close to scores in the last period. Twice W. and J. had the ball within the Bear's forty yard line and twice Stein tried in vain to score on a kick. One attempt was a drop-kick and grounded, and the other, a place kick, was blocked. In the same period, California had the ball in the Easterners' 22 yard line. The Bears tried a forward pass, but it was fumbled and Erickson punted to safety.

"Brick" Muller, California's all-American end, went into the game after it started but evidently the Easterners had been told to watch him for he was unable to get away with any of his famed forward passes. On his first attempt at an end run, five W. and J. tacklers downed him.

Until yesterday's game the Bears have had little trouble this season in piercing their opponents' lines and when they ran into the strong W. and J. defense they were baffled. In the first half they made first downs twice but failed to make any in the second half. The Presidents made first downs six times.

No rain fell during the game, although the skies threatened. Approximately 40,000 people were present.

Bismarck High School Team Is Defeated on Valley City
Floor

The Bismarck high school basketball team suffered defeat at Valley City last night, 20 to 12. It was Bismarck's seventh game of the week and the defeat followed six consecutive victories.

The first half ended, 9 to 4, in favor of Valley City. Both teams played fine defensive ball in the first half. Bismarck came up to within one point of Valley City and then slumped back. The Bismarck team could not break through the defense of the Valley City team.

Mothers—You should carefully guard your daughter's health. Advise her of the danger which comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, or overworking. Do not let her overstudy.

If she complains of headache, pains in back or lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, give her careful attention.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent medicine for your daughter to take, as it is especially adapted to relieve just such symptoms. Remember it contains nothing that can injure and can be taken in safety.

MANY "LUXURY TAXES" ARE TAKEN OFF BY THE NEW REVENUE LAW

In response to numerous inquiries, taxpayers are advised that certain taxes, among them the so-called "luxury taxes," are repealed, effective January 1, 1922, by the Revenue Act of 1921.

Patrons of soda-water fountains, ice cream parlors and "similar places of business" no longer are required to pay the tax of 1 cent for each 10 cents or fraction thereof on the amount expended for sodas, sundaes, "or similar articles of food or drink." The small boy may rejoice in the fact that an ice-cream cone doesn't cost an extra penny. The tax imposed by the Revenue Act of 1921 is on "beverages and the constituent parts thereof" and is paid by the manufacturer.

The tax on the transportation of freight and passengers is repealed, effective January 1, 1922, also the tax paid by the purchaser on amount paid for men's and women's wearing apparel (shoes, hats, caps, neckwear, shirts, hose, etc.) in excess of a specified price.

Taxes imposed under Section 904 (which under the Revenue Act of 1918 included the taxes on wearing apparel) are now confined to a 5 per cent tax on the following articles: carpets, on the amount in excess of $4.50 a square yard; rugs, on the amount in excess of $5 a square yard; trunks on the amount in excess of $25 each; valises, traveling bags, suit cases, hat boxes used by travelers and fitted toilet cases, on the amount in excess of $25 each; purses, pocket-books, shopping and hand bags, on the amount in excess of $5 each; portable lighting fixtures, including lamps of all kinds, on the amount in excess resents the price charged for the article, and what portion represents the tax.

The taxes on sporting goods, (tennis rackets, fishing rods, baseball and football uniforms, fishing rods, etc.) are repealed, also the tax on chewing gum, portable electric fans, thermostatic containers, articles made of fur, and toilet articles and musical instruments.

The tax on sales of jewelry, real or imitation, is 5 per cent, and is payable by the vendor. The tax on the sale of works of art (paintings, statuary, art porcelains, and bronzes) is reduced from 10 to 5 per cent. This tax, payable by the vendor, applies except in the original sale by the artist, or to an educational institution or public art museum, or a sale by a recognized dealer in such articles to another such dealer for resale.

When payable by the manufacturer or vendor, taxes must be in the hands of the collector of internal revenue on or before the last day of the month following the month in which the sale was made.

Following are forms for making returns and regulations relating to taxes which may be had on application to offices of collectors of internal revenue; manufacturers' excise tax Form 729, revised; Regulations 47, revised; tax on works of art and jewelry, Form 729 A, revised; Regulations 48, revised; tax on beverages, Form 726, revised; Regulations 52, revised.

CENTRE TASTES FIRST DEFEAT

Dallas, Tex., Jan. 3.—The Center college football team was on its way back to Danville, Kentucky, today after suffering its first defeat of the season yesterday when the Texas A. and M. college won a 22 to 14 victory over the Kentuckians. Sport leaders generally declared today the result of the game upsets all predictions.

The Texas team had suffered but one defeat this season by Louisiana university, early last fall.

O. W. ROBERTS TELLS WORK OF LOCAL BUREAU

Part Work Plays in Various Walks of Life Recounted Before Rotary Club

Weather held the boards at the noonday luncheon of the Bismarck Rotary club. O. W. Roberts, in charge of the local bureau gave a most interesting account of the work of the bureau. He was introduced by Phil Meyers who served as chairman.

Mr. Roberts explained in popular terms the science behind weather predictions and the difference between weather and climate. He explained how daily maps are drawn and how carefully predictions are made. It was a tribute to the service, he said, that so seldom cold waves and storms named in the forecast failed to arrive. Sometimes, he explained they were behind on their schedule, but combinations of circumstances were usually responsible.

Many inquiries In one month, he explained, he had more than 1,200 inquiries about roads. Mr. Roberts started the plan of reporting road conditions to auto tourists. He said that the plan had become popular in other sections. Every day during the automobile season he has many inquiries.

He termed the weather man as a "dispatcher of storms" just as a train dispatcher guides the operation of the trains. Prefacing his remarks with historical data to the origin of the weather bureau, he accorded the honor of the first weather prediction to Benjamin Franklin who evolved the general theory upon which the science was afterwards perfected.

In an interesting manner, he sketched the value of the weather bureau to the businessmen, especially those who deal in perishable goods, to the operation of trains and he emphasized the part the weather plays in litigation.

The coldest temperature registered in this country, he said, was in Miles City, Mont., in 1888 when it was 67 degrees below. The warmest registered was near Fresno, Cal., when the temperature was in excess of 130 degrees above.

Sahara the warmest The warmest spot, he said, was the Sahara desert where the temperature was known to have exceeded more than 150 above in the shade and the coldest was in Siberia where official thermometers registered as low as 97 below.

Mr. Roberts was given an enthusiastic reception at the end of his address and several questions were asked showing the interest among Rotarians in the work of the bureau. A novel feature of the program was the introducing of each member by his fellow members. This was carried out in a snappy manner and there were some novel characterizations.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are made in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

George Mann gave the three-minute talk upon some aspects of Rotary. He said in part:

Membership Not Essential "Participation in the benefits of Rotary for the average citizen is measured by the radius of his influence. The emblem of Rotary is a circle. The emblem of a Rotarian is a small circle but a large circumference symbolical of a Rotarian's obligation. "Service Above Self" If Rotary were confined to a small center it would instantly become a cult with a limited appeal, antagonistic to the spirit of cooperative effort.

"Anyone, then, regardless of race, creed or previous condition of servitude, who fears God, honors his country and places service above self is a Rotarian whether he is conscious of the distinction or not.

"The Golden Rule is the divine law governing human relationships, but it is also a basic law governing perfect balance in economics. Rotary demands the practice of the Golden Rule in all relations, both spiritual and material.

Rotarian Mandate "The Rotarian mandate, "Service Above Self" is the very essence of unselfishness, just as the Golden Rule is the very essence of Christianity. Rotary combats selfish policies in business just as the Great Teacher when he gave the world the Golden Rule exploded a selfish dogma that had gripped a pagan empire.

"Rotary, then, is not exclusive—it is all inclusive and confers benefits only as each Rotarian radiates the Rotary spirit in everyday transactions. The sixty or more Rotarians in Bismarck are merely the apostles of Rotary and it is their militancy that makes Rotary the vital force it is.

"As we enter a new year, it is fitting to place special emphasis upon the fact that the blessings of Rotary are not confined to Rotarians alone but are dynamic forces that can transform all men, for, as the poet sings, "He who loves his kind does first and last a work too great for fame."

MacLeod was song leader and introduced a new stunt which took well with the members.

Among the visiting guests were Julius Bacon, Grand Forks; Gil Hoggart, Fargo; Mr. McGraw, Underwood.

GOLD METALLIC STANDARD TO BE RE-ESTABLISHED

That Is The Opinion of Representatives of 3 Scandinavian Central Banks

Stockholm, Jan. 4.—Representatives for the three Scandinavian central banks met at a meeting just held here in which the delegates agreed to re-establish an effective gold metallic standard in Europe, even though it should prove impossible for every currency to regain its former value.

A communique issued after the meeting stated that probably at the present time no country in Europe would be able to return to the gold metallic standard without the cooperation of the United States. The plan that seemed to offer the greatest chance of success was for England and the United States, in common, to take the first step toward the re-establishment of this standard. When the first step out of the existing currency difficulties had been taken no great time would elapse before other European countries would follow.

So long as the value of the British pound had not been stabilized in relation to the dollar, the meeting considered that none of the Scandinavian countries would, unaided, be able to stabilize their kronor values in relation to the dollar.

The opinion of the meeting was that, until a fixed international measure of value had been obtained, every little country should abstain from all experiments with the stabilization of its currency.

NEW METHOD ON MORTGAGES

Industrial Commission To Issue Bonds As Work Goes On

Bond attorneys engaged by the Industrial Commission have disapproved the former method of placing mortgages upon mill and elevator property for the purpose of issuing bonds. It was learned today. One issue of $500,000 was placed upon the Drake mill and the Grand Forks mill on which work had not been started at the time. About $25,000 worth of bonds were sold.

The new plan provides that a mortgage will be issued on a new appraisal of the Drake mill and mortgages will be placed upon the Grand Forks property for the money already invested, which is about $1,000,000. Additional bond issues will be made as the work progresses, covering additional sums invested. Under this plan the work may be carried on by borrowing probably not more than $100,000 at a time, or until a bond issue is completed.

LEGION GUEST HAS BIG IDEA

M. Charles Bertrand of France Plans Association of Veterans to Preserve World Peace.

An association of men of all countries who fought with the Allies against Germany as the most effective unit to preserve world peace is planned by M. Charles Bertrand, member of the French chamber of deputies and president of the Inter-Allied Veterans' Federation.

Bertrand came to America with Marshal Foch as a special guest of the American Legion.

More than 8,500,000 Allied veterans now have assembled under the leadership of the inter-allied federation, and a meeting of the allied soldiers of all countries will be held in Paris soon. Representative American ex-service men, the Legion will send a strong representation to the conference.

Bertrand served as an infantryman in the French army from the beginning of the war to its close. He was wounded several times and severely gassed, and his company was replaced with fresh drafts on thirty different occasions, so disseminated was it in the three engagements into which it was thrown. The senator likewise is head of the French veteran society made up exclusively of men wounded in action.

In the formation of the inter-allied veterans' association, Bertrand has made frequent trips to Italy, England, Roumania and other allied countries. On his first trip to the United States he was the only civilian in the distinguished company of Marshal Foch, Admiral Batty, General Diaz and Gen. Baron Jacques to receive the American Legion's gold medal for distinguished service.

SCHEMES TO COLLECT DUES

Novel Methods Are Being Employed to Induce Legion Members to Pay 1922 Assessments.

Novel means employed by American Legion posts to get in membership dues early in 1922 are causing comment in every community where a post is located, according to reports to Legion national headquarters in Indianapolis.

Around the top of the list is the story from South Dakota. A post is offering each service man who pays his dues before a set date a discount of ten per cent on the dues for the next year's auxiliary. Three of the posts' being distributed contain cash prizes in coin—$20, $10 and $5 in gold. The biscuits may not be taken open until the night of the post banquet when they will serve as cards of admission. Early recipients of biscuits declared they could not judge from their weight whether they contained gold pieces or bricks.

Out in Kansas a post gave its service officer carte blanche in collecting 1922 dues early. A few mornings after Legionnaires were being routed out of bed at 4 a. m. by members of the committee who refused to let the members go back to bed until he had paid up. The various state departments of the Legion are in a hot contest for the honor of being the first to send in the complete dues of the membership.

WILL HELP CHEER UP BOYS

Miss Rita Gould, Vaudeville Star, Offers Her Services to the American Legion.

"The boys need a little cheer now as much as they did when they were in France, homesick, cold and miserable. I'll do my share," said Miss Rita Gould of the vaudeville stage in offering her services to the American Legion.

During the period of America's participation in the various A. E. F. billeting camps, staging entertainments for the soldiers. After she had passed most of last summer in government hospitals and recreation camps entertaining sick and wounded men, Miss Gould informed the legion that on her theatrical tour of the winter she would give her services free to legion posts in all the towns she visits. Many posts are availing themselves of the opportunity to have a stage star feature their amateur theatricals for the benefit of needy and disabled service men.

Asking Too Much. "I don't want to eat this egg, it's not a nice egg," protested the six-year-old daughter of the house at the breakfast table. "Mary," said her mother sternly, "you are always complaining of your food. Eat what is placed before you—every bite of it—without another word, or else I'll have to give you a good spanking."

All was quiet for some minutes. Then from the other end of the table came a mournful voice. "Mother, dear, do I have to eat the egg too?"—American Legion Weekly.

U. S. COMMISSION HEAD TO TELL OF ITS PROBE

Representative Anderson Will Tell of Investigation Into Agriculture

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 4.—In picking the man best qualified to answer the question, "What's wrong with agriculture," which will be the theme of the annual Tri-State Grain Growers' Convention in Fargo, January 17-30, officers of the convention picked Congressman Sidney Anderson of Minnesota, chairman of the Congressional Joint Commission of Agricultural Inquiry. Mr. Anderson has accepted the invitation to tell the convention the outstanding things he has found is wrong with the agricultural industry, and will speak at the convention at the second day's session.

Mr. Anderson's commission, created at the demand of the United States senate and house of representatives, and composed of members of both, is going about its inquiry into agricultural conditions in a systematic manner. Divisions of the commission are studying the questions of agricultural production, distribution and financing, with advisory committees of citizens assisting each division. Mr. Anderson has recently appointed the advisory committee to the transportation division, the farmer members of this committee being J. Lowell, master of the National Grange; President J. R. Howard and Geyr Silver of the American Farm Bureau Federation; Milo D. Campbell, president of the National Milk Producers' association; and A. U. Chaney, general manager of the American Graintry exchange. Manufacturers and railroads also are represented on the committee.

Far and one-half on the certificate plan has been granted by all railroads from all Minnesota, North and South Dakota points. Full one way fare must be paid to Fargo and a certificate, or receipt, taken from the station agent. The certificate, when validated at the convention, entitles the holder to return ticket at half fare, provided 350 certificates are presented. The number in previous years has been far in excess of that figure.

A BUSY TIME IN LINE FOR BISMARCK BOYS

Mr. MacLeod Has Arranged
Program to Keep Lads Busy and Entertained

BISMARCK BOYS

The program of the Young Comers Saturday morning at 9:30 consisted of class work relay races and basketball. Following this class the Pioneers entered enthusiastically into a team tournament of athletics and games with the following results:

Jerry Jackson's team under the management of Henry Sowles was first with a total score of 44 points. Harry Lobach's team under the management of Highland scored 71 points taking second place. L. Watkins' team under Mr. Hays' management was third with a total of 50 points. Lee Hughes' team under the management of Jack Laybahl finished fourth with a total of 35 points.

The Wednesday all-day hike proved a splendid outing. Arriving on the flats opposite Ward's the boys were divided into 4 or 5 groups. Each group made its own fire and prepared cats. A great deal of interest was taken in observing the markings on the snow of the inhabitants of the woods. Several games were enjoyed before returning. On the way home the boys were very much interested in observing the riveters on the new bridge-tossing the white-heated rivets to the men on the girders. They would deftly catch the rivet in a cone-shaped receptacle, quickly pick it up with a pair of pliers and insert it into its hole in the girder. It was soon pounded into place by the heavy working hammers.

On Thursday at 2 p. m. the boys assembled at the High School and at 2:15 proceeded to the offices of the Hughes Electric Co. From there Mr. Clarence Larsen took the boys to the Electric Plant where he explained in a very interesting way the workings of boilers, engines, dynamos and lighting and heating systems. A prize of $2 is offered to the boy who will write the best story of one of these educational trips.

After leaving the Hughes Electric the boys proceeded to Artesian Hill where with the assistance of Paul Goddard, Bert Nussle and Chuck Moe's work was commenced on a slide.

Yesterday a trip was taken to the telephone offices and Wednesday through the Northern Produce. Thursday at the State Museum and Friday to the wholesale district. Any boy 12 years of age and over is welcome on these educational trips.

The mornings will be given over to sliding and out-door recreation; the afternoons to the educational trips leaving the High School at 2:15 every day.

Don't forget to get your entry in for the dog and sled race which is to take place Friday afternoon. Particulars of this event will be announced later.

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION O. K.'S NEW PLAN

Of W. B. DeNault Regarding Loans To Be Made By
Bank of N. D.

Plans for the new loans to be issued by the farm loan department of the Bank of North Dakota under the management of Mr. Wilbert B. DeNault have been approved by the Industrial Commission. Mr. DeNault's suggestion, the new loans will be upon a 20 year amortization basis, the mortgages being written to pay six and a half per cent interest and one and a half per cent principal the first year, with the interest remaining at the same rate but decreasing in volume and the principal payment increasing in volume each year so that the annual payments are $50 on each thousand dollars loaned.

Mr. DeNault's original conception was for a thirty-four year amortization plan, with a beginning principal payment of one per cent. He found himself stopped, however, by one of the peculiar provisions of the farm loan law which provides that no bonds issued under the law shall extend more than 30 years from the time of the passage of the act. As the present farm loan act became a law February 25, 1919, all the bonds issued under its provisions must be paid off by February 25, 1949, or 27 years from the end of next month. All of the mortgages, therefore, accepted by Mr. DeNault must be upon a basis of payments which will be completed before the termination of the bonds. The 20 year basis will make it possible to make loans all through 1922 and still have maturing payments fall due before the end of the period for which bonds can be issued. Mr. DeNault considers it unfortunate that the law prevents the issuance of loans upon a one per cent amortization plan as it would have made the payments easier for the farmers to meet.

Under the plan a man receiving a loan of one thousand dollars will pay sixty-five dollars interest and fifteen dollars principal the first year or a total of eighty dollars. The interest payment becomes a smaller amount each year and the principal payment a larger amount of the annual eighty dollars until the final or twenty-sixth year when the total amount is slightly increased to complete all payments.

The following table shows the amounts paid each year on the amortization table worked out by Mr. DeNault, the hypothetical loan being $1,000.

There are 400,000 people that the railroads will make a reduced freight rate on. On the other hand, the railroads are destined to North Dakota in the opinion of John H. Worst, commissioner of immigration, who is working with bankers of the state on a plan to bring a number of settlers to take land on the coast part of the next spring.

Mr. Hunter of the Milwaukee writes me that he is in favor of the railroads coming back to the old rates in operation as far as possible and will do what he can to see reduced.

C. C. CONVERSE IS NEW N. D. TAX COMMISSIONER

Was Given His Commission By
Gov. Nestos on Last Day of Old Year

TAKES WALLACE'S PLACE

C. C. Converse of Williston is North Dakota Tax Commissioner. Mr. Converse was given his commission by Governor E. A. Nestos late on the last day of the year when George E. Wallace, tax commissioner for the last nine and a half years relinquished his office. Mr. Wallace spent his last day in office in getting details ready for the new administration and cleaning his desk of personal matters which had accumulated in his long tenure as guardian of the state's taxes.

In quitting his office, Mr. Wallace made the following statement: "It is with regret that I now realize the time has now arrived for me to lay down the duties of my office after a continuous service of almost ten years."

"During all this time the work done in the department has been a real man's job. Particularly heavy has been the litigation I have conducted to safeguard the public funds. One case is now with the state supreme court affecting the question of the taxation of stocks in state banks. The issue is so drawn that it is possible for the court to decide also the question of taxation for national banks. Assuming that the court will deal with both, the amount of money involved in that one case alone, is sufficient to pay my salary for five hundred years. I feel confident that the case will be won for the public."

"There is also a case tried and awaiting decision by the supreme court of the United States, which I argued this month. It involves the law taking the four principal railroads of the state on the value of the capital stock. There are pending about twenty-five revenue cases that I will not be able to reach. The total amount involved in submitted and decided cases reach well into the millions in revenue. The untried cases also involve large amounts of taxes."

"Although taxation is a very dry and technical subject, yet I have learned to love it, and feel that I have gone a long way in mastering it, especially with reference to court work. County officials have co-operated splendidly in the enforcement of the revenue laws. I desire, at this time, to thank them one and all for their valuable assistance."

"The new administration must take up my tasks where I lay them down. There is a great deal to do. I wish the new administration God-speed and good luck in solving these questions for the public."

MUST ABIDE BY COUNCILS JUDGMENT

Courts may not substitute their judgment for that of a city council, declares North Dakota's supreme court in deciding the case of Jones et al vs the City of Hankinson, Richland county. The opinion is rendered in the decision of a tax payers suit to enjoin the city from proceeding with the completion of a large water supply plant, water mains and sewer. The lower court denied the injunction and this decision the higher court affirmed.

The injunction petition, brought at a time the work was well advanced in July, 1920, was signed by 176 tax payers. The taxpayers alleged in their petition that the cost of building the plant at that time was prohibitive and that the public necessity demanded the stoppage of the work.

The city council answered with the claim that the improvement was necessary for the convenience, health, fire protection and the general welfare and showed that the cost at the time appeared to be about $80,000. The lower court decided against the petitioners and the higher court upheld this decision, deciding in the language of justice Christianson, who wrote the opinion, that the council must not substitute its judgment for the judgment of the city council as to the wisdom and expediency of a town improvement.

WOULD APPOINT RECEIVER FOR EACH DISTRICT

Proposal Made To Divide State
Into Eight Banking
Districts

Tentative division of the state into eight banking districts has been made by the state banking board. The basis of the change being the hope that it will be possible to appoint a receiver in each of the districts to take charge of the closed banks in the area. While some of the present receivers are holding their positions through court action, an appeal will be taken to the supreme court immediately for a final review of the statutes involved, and in the meantime the banks without receivers or the banks where the receivers have resigned, have been grouped.

The divisions are tentative only and may be changed as conditions warrant. O. L. Engen of the Fargo District was the first of the receivers to be appointed and he has taken over the control of most of the banks in his district. The proposed groupings, listed by the names of the towns in which banks have been or are closed follows:

Grand Forks District
Grand Forks, Milton, Bathgate, Mowbray, Crocus.
Fargo District
Fargo, Prosper, Hatton, Edgeley, Jud, Cogswell, Crete.
New Rockford District
New Rockford, Brantford, Kalum, Courtenay.
Bismarck District
Crystal Springs, Braddock, Pingree, Robinson, Leith, Timmer, Hazen.
Bowman District
Bowman, Haynes, Rhome, Marmath, Amidon.
New England District
New England, Havelock, Regent, Delfield, Beach, Killdeer.

West Minot District
Minot, Sawyer, Carpio, Donnybrook, Columbus, Fortuna, Williston, Watford.
East Minot District
Dunseith, Mohall, Laramie, Glenburn, Green, Tolley, Bantry, Benedict.

In the last four districts, more banks are listed, than the number of towns because of two banks closed in one town of each district.

W. C. T. U. Hold Meeting and Elect Officers

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was held at the home of Mrs. R. Mobley yesterday afternoon.

Following the oriel business session an interesting New Year program was given under the direction of the president.

The New Year's greeting was as follows:

WELCOME 1922

We greet you with high anticipations of what you are to bring us. Because we expect great things, we shall attempt great things. Special emphasis will be given to law enforcement. We will work for an era of law and order, and our important enterprises will be Americanization, Christian Citizenship, Social Morality, World Prohibition and the promotion of all that exalts a nation.

Welcome 1922, year of privilege and opportunity.

The following officers were elected and will serve during the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. R. Mobley.
Vice-President—Mrs. F. L. Watkins.
Secretary—Mrs. C. W. Smith.
Treasurer—Mrs. J. O. Varney.

An advisory board of vice-presidents from churches of the city was appointed, namely, Mrs. George Register, Mrs. H. C. Postlethwaite, Mrs. Elizabeth Sukow, Mrs. Robert Morris and Miss Lillian Holman.

Mrs. J. N. McCarter was re-appointed leader of the Loyal Temperance Legion with Mrs. George Register as assistant leader.

Mrs. C. W. Smith was reappointed delegate from the union to the Women's Community Council.

The next regular meeting will be held on the first Tuesday in February.

Country Club Elects Officers

The annual meeting of the Bismarck Country Club was held last evening at 8 o'clock in the Commercial club rooms. Burt Finney was elected president. J. P. Hess of Mandan, vice president. Myron Atkinson, secretary, and George H. Ragsdale, treasurer. H. P. Goddard, P. R. Fields and G. A. Hawkins were elected members of the board of directors.

In connection with the election of Mr. Hess as vice president, many Mandan people have signed their intention to join the Bismarck Country Club on completion of the new bridge. As a courtesy to them and to gain closer co-operation between the two cities, Mr. Hess, who has been a member of the Bismarck Country Club for many years was elected vice president and becomes by virtue of that office a member of the board of directors.

RETURNS FROM CHICAGO

Pastor-at-large C. W. Finwall returned to Bismarck last night from Chicago. In response to invitations from the Hinsdale Sanatorium, near Chicago, Rev. Finwall spoke to the "chut-ins" in that institution on Tuesday evening, December 27, and to the "Ruth Society" in Chicago, on Thursday evening, December 29. This society was organized by Rev. Finwall 19 years ago while pastor of the Logan Square church. It is now a strong Rev. Finwall raised $1,700 for this home for working girls in Chicago. PRACICAL FIFTH-AVE. WRAP

BY MARIAN HALE.
New York, Jan. 4.—Wrappy garments which take unto themselves great bands of fur are seen with increasing frequency on Fifth avenue. This Bandler wrap, built on extremely loose lines, has a huge collar which fits well up at the throat. The convenience of the easily slipped-on wrap is so apparent that such a garment has become an almost necessary part of every wardrobe.

Worn over a suit they add the necessary warmth in cold days and yet permit the wearer to appear at the ten-room table at the conclusion of an afternoon's shopping in her smartly tailored suit.

A CHARMING FROCK FOR THE DANCE

BY MARIAN HALE.
New York, Jan. 4.—Like the blue and silver mist of morning evenings is this Claire dancing frock. The skirt, trail wisps of cornflower blue chiffon, glimmers over silver cloth and is caught at the waistline by a band of colorful hand-made flowers exceedingly fresh in appearance. Flowers have become something of importance to the evening frock, scarcely a one but boasts of a trail of artificial flowering vine at waistline, hem line or shoulder a pretty conceit it is—and youthful. The waist of this fascinating little gown is strangely high at the back, but quite as transparent. Bands of translucent iridescent trimming cling sparkingly to a foundation of chiffon and cross the shoulders to meet a prettily low bouree. The fluffy head of the wearer is adorned with a Rhinestone band which hangs at the left in a glittering length.

LAST WORD IN SLEEVES

BY MARIAN HALE.
New York, Jan. 4.—You've seen it coming, gradually taking on a little more fullness and a little more fullness until now we have with us a sleeve of some proportions. It comes, of course, with the other fancies we are borrowing from European peasants—Rumanian's general is.

The sleeves of this Polret gown are its interesting feature. We've known brown velvet as a fashionable fabric long, and we've loved the straight soft line of it in skirts, but it has been many a day since we've used such volumes of material for our sleeves and then brought them into a loose hand at the wrist.

Scout Notes

BAPTIST SCOUTS—TROOP 1.

Scout meeting passed off last Friday with a "bang." We sure did have a lively and busy time. Every initiative measure brought up by a scout made other scouts argue. It was work for everyone. Discussion of our cabin was the chief topic. Voted to give a scout "notice" because he had not been coming to meeting nor taking test. These notices lately have been given quite often because the troop has got now to where every boy must show the goods by coming to meeting and qualifying for tests to stay in the troop. This eliminates the "unfit." New "bird contest" started Sunday, the first of the year. We are going to beat last year's record of 120 birds. An appointment of Notes editor took place after motion picture was carried for one and also a centenary committee was appointed. Some thought the meeting so urgent that after three roll calls the meeting was not adjourned. Finally it broke up after a voluntary dismissal.

Cabin Notes.—Last week boys went out to Ward's, doing different kinds of work in preparation for the cabin. We claim to be building the cabin with the biggest and best logs and challenge any troop to deny it. We also wish to extend our best thanks to Mr. Ward for the use of his land and trees for our cabin.

TROOP SIX.

Work is now centering around our cabin. Ole Benson and Norris Fitch finished the putting on of the roof, and did a good job of it. Plans were all laid to melt ice for mixing the mud to plaster up the holes when Bob Wilber says, "Why not use mud from the creek?" This was done and the whole house is practically finished.

ON BUSINESS TRIP.

George F. Shaffer, assistant attorney general, has gone to Fargo on a several days business trip.

VISITING HERE.

J. E. Sullivan of Garrison is a visitor in the city for a few days.

FROM COLEHARBOR.

Mrs. J. W. Keith of Coleharbor.

TO MINNESOTA.

Bruce Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Wallace, who has been spending the holiday season at his home here, left last evening for Minneapolis where he will resume his work at the University of Minnesota.

HOLIDAY GUESTS.

Mr. and Mrs. George Moore of Forsyth, Mont., Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wilkinson of Mandan, and Mrs. H. E. Barnes of Washburn, were holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barnes.

SEWING CIRCLE MEETS.

LAST WORD IN SLEEVES

BY MARIAN HALE.
New York, Jan. 4.—You've seen it coming, gradually taking on a little more fullness and a little more fullness until now we have with us a sleeve of some proportions. It comes, of course, with the other fancies we are borrowing from European peasants—Rumanian's general is.

The sleeves of this Polret gown are its interesting feature. We've known brown velvet as a fashionable fabric long, and we've loved the straight soft line of it in skirts, but it has been many a day since we've used such volumes of material for our sleeves and then brought them into a loose hand at the wrist.

Mrs. Barneck of Dawson is a guest of Mrs. E. Fitzgerald for several days.

FROM KILLDEER.

Howard Ellsworth of Killdeer, is visiting friends in the city today.

FROM REGAN.

Mrs. John Langdahl of Regan was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Scout Notes

BAPTIST SCOUTS—TROOP 1.

Scout meeting passed off last Friday with a "bang." We sure did have a lively and busy time. Every initiative measure brought up by a scout made other scouts argue. It was work for everyone. Discussion of our cabin was the chief topic. Voted to give a scout "notice" because he had not been coming to meeting nor taking test. These notices lately have been given quite often because the troop has got now to where every boy must show the goods by coming to meeting and qualifying for tests to stay in the troop. This eliminates the "unfit." New "bird contest" started Sunday, the first of the year. We are going to beat last year's record of 120 birds. An appointment of Notes editor took place after motion picture was carried for one and also a centenary committee was appointed. Some thought the meeting so urgent that after three roll calls the meeting was not adjourned. Finally it broke up after a voluntary dismissal.

Cabin Notes.—Last week boys went out to Ward's, doing different kinds of work in preparation for the cabin. We claim to be building the cabin with the biggest and best logs and challenge any troop to deny it. We also wish to extend our best thanks to Mr. Ward for the use of his land and trees for our cabin.

TROOP SIX.

Work is now centering around our cabin. Ole Benson and Norris Fitch finished the putting on of the roof, and did a good job of it. Plans were all laid to melt ice for mixing the mud to plaster up the holes when Bob Wilber says, "Why not use mud from the creek?" This was done and the whole house is practically finished.

Friday Evening, January 6, 1922
Patterson Hall. McKenzie Hotel Orchestra

Proceeds to be used in paying expense of action now pending in District Court to recover OUR PROPERTY. Contrary to prejudiced reports, Co. A is not trying to take possession of the Armory unlawfully. Co. A has two court actions pending in District Court, and we need money to pay legal expenses. The U. S. War Department will not recognize Co. A until we provide an Armory. Co. A recognized by the War Department means approximately a $10,000 annual pay roll for Bismarck young men.

Co. A is not a petty political organization. This is a fight for our home. We want the courts to decide if we have, or have not a legal right to the Armory property.

ANOTHER CITY WANTS CO. A. SOMETHING MUST BE DONE.

Co. A is the oldest military organization in the two Dakotas. Its members have spilled their blood on the battlefields of two great wars. Considering Co. A's splendid record, will we allow it to be kicked out of our city?

SHIFT IN LEADERSHIP
Boies Penrose's death has caused a shift in leadership to the West. Senator McCumber is to assume chairmanship of the most important committee in the United States senate. Those states whose chief industry is agriculture feel that their interests are in safe hands, but the rule of Penrose was not prejudicial to the agricultural interests. There has always been a close working agreement between Penrose and McCumber. The two senators have worked harmoniously upon revenue matters and the demise of the senior senator from Pennsylvania is a distinct loss to the nation.

Few men have been more bitterly attacked than Penrose. He has been regarded by the muckrakers as a political boss and painted in the darkest hues, but it is a significant fact that he received greater majorities under the primary system than he did under the convention plan so that in spite of the political school he was allied with, he was popular in his own state.

He seldom made a speech, but he worked laboriously in committee and was concerned more with results than with appeals to the galleries. When he did discuss financial matters, his words carried weight and his decisions were usually sound economically.

In this connection a dispatch written by Robert Barry, Washington correspondent for the Philadelphia Public Ledger is interesting to North Dakota. A few excerpts are reproduced here:

"Senator Porter J. McCumber of North Dakota will become chairman of the great tariff and taxation committee. He will be the first representative of an agricultural constituency to wield that power."

"Senator McCumber will not be blamed for thinking first perhaps of farmer products in tariff discussions, but he is counted as holding safe convictions relative to the reciprocity essential between farm and factory."

And again:

"The advancement of Mr. McCumber, however, carries an eloquent story of what is happening in the republican organization in congress. It foretells an issue which the party leaders must face in the near future. The leaders of the north and east no longer answer when the roll is called. The west is gaining the ascendancy. Powerful committee chairmanships are passing from New England to the country beyond the Mississippi. Party management is slipping from the type of the giants of yesterday. Cameron, Quay and Penrose of Pennsylvania, Crane and Hoar from Massachusetts, "Tom" Platt of New York; from Maine, the elder Hale and James G. Blaine; Gallinger of New Hampshire; Rhode Island, S. Aldrich, and Justin S. Morrill from Vermont.

"It is moving westward. Mid-western and far western republicans, most of them still young in life, already hold high places on the dominant committees. Ahead of them are the elder statesmen of the party, all well along in years. A few of them are sick men. They have but a little while yet to go. Within a decade the westerners will have a majority of the high places.

"Republican leaders are not blind to the possibilities of the situation. They have reckoned with it already. La Follette of Wisconsin, stands third now on the finance committee. Reed and Smoot are ahead of him as heir apparent to the chairmanship, but the possibility remains of such an issue for party leaders. Behind Senator Lodge on the foreign relations committee stand Mr. McCumber and then William E. Borah."

The death of Penrose coming so close upon that of his brilliant colleague Knox is a great blow to the Keystone state. It deprives a great industrial center of dominant leadership in the senate. Penrose and Knox working in complete sympathy wielded a great power which they used in behalf of the Republic in some of the most critical periods.

KIDDING THE NOBILITY
Georges Carpentier, who helped make Jack Dempsey pay a big income tax for 1921, will be a nobleman January 1.

To honor Carp, the French government has invented a new decoration—the Order of Physical Education. Carp's title will be Officer. Descamps, this manager, will be made a Knight.

Apparently this elevates Carp to equal social standing with the Earl of Dolittle or the Knights of the Golden Prune.

The French are a subtle people, adepts and past masters at delicate irony. On the surface, this making pugilism the doorway to nobility appears to be 14-karat. But—

The Frenchman who conceived the scheme probably was "kidding" the nobility of France's less democratic neighbors.

With a prizefighter's manager made a knight, we see the ruins to which the ancient system of noblemen has been reduced. It is more startling than finding a Russian grand duke washing dishes in an American restaurant.

And yet, by curious coincidence, the originals of long lines of earls, counts and dukes got their titles by serving as prizefighters.

The queen surrounded herself with a bodyguard of 200 prizefighters. They kissed their swords, swore to defend the queen with their lives. In exchange, they were knighted.

The majority of titles and nobility had their origin in fighting, especially warfare.

Titles are losing out as democracy gains control of the social system. Canada recently gave us a fine illustration when her people raised violent objections to the elevation of prominent Canadians to noble ranks, by the British crown.

Noblemen were the expression of destructive and parasitic forces that had free swing by keeping the people down.

The tide now runs in the other direction, with titles and medals conferred for constructive work. We have the Nobel prizes for each year's greatest literary, scientific, humanitarian and other contributions to the world.

We see inventors and engineers honored with international medals.

The overall is taking the place of the crown and coat-of-arms.

The Aristocracy of Public Service eclipses the knights, dukes, counts, barons, earls That is progress.

WONDERS
Children, tinkering with wireless telephony and toy moving picture outfits, make us grow-ups realize that we'll have to double our step to keep pace with the world.

Some nursery movie films are sold as low as a cent a foot. The price ranges up to 10 cents a foot for films that can't catch fire or explode.

Do you remember the first movie you saw — how it thrilled you? The scientific marvel of yesterday is the toy of today.

If it keeps on, we'll be getting old-fashioned every 24 hours.

WASTED
The new Japanese yearly budget appropriates the equivalent of $333,000,000 for army and navy. Schools get $28,500,000.

Eleven times as much for war preparations as for education!

The person who does not see the fallacy of that is a 14-carot idiot. And people are beginning to see!

People, of all nations, of all races, are coming out of their trance. The super-hypnotist, War, is far from dead. But his ultimate extinction is inevitable. Handwriting is on the wall.

PENROSE AND McCUMBER
The death of Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania removes from the upper house its most dominating and interesting personality. Possessed of a fine mind and inheriting the traditions of a long line of American ancestors, Penrose seemed to have been born to lead. Naturally he was a conservative and as the acknowledged head of the Republican "Old Guard" he brought upon himself vigorous attack and criticism of the progressive element in both parties. These, however, did not alter him or his opinions, and despite the fact that he was proclaimed a "boss" and an enemy of the common people the voters of his own state kept sending him back to Washington with ever-increasing majorities. This alone is sufficient to indicate that perhaps he was not as black as he was painted.

The passing of Penrose will be keenly felt in the Senate organization. As chairman of the finance committee he was responsible for the recent tax revision act and at the time of his death was working on the tariff bill. The chairmanship now goes to Senator Porter J. McCumber of North Dakota, and from the standpoint of Western interest, particularly agricultural, this change no doubt will be considered beneficial. McCumber has proved himself one of the Senate leaders and has a great opportunity before him as successor to the famous Pennsylvanian.—St. Paul Dispatch.

IN THE NAME OF GAMALIEL
Those leaders of the prohibition forces who are demanding that President Harding declare himself emphatically in favor of or opposed to exact enforcement of the eighteenth amendment ought to be reminded that his middle name is Gamaliel. Having been reminded that, they ought to look up the derivation of the name and learn that, according to certain authorities, it means the "camel of the Lord." There are only two ways to interpret that. He may be a dry, or he may not.—San Francisco Call.

Detachments of the Army of Occupation are leaving Coblenz with regularity now. And many of the doughboys are leaving their sweethearts, as you will notice here.

POSSUM TIME
When de moon his face am hidin', an' de sta's ain't bright,
Its a dandy time f'r possum, cause de signs am right,
An' de houn-dawgs keep a sniffin', till dere on his trail,
I don' know how dey fin' it but dey never fail

Den dey all start in' barkin' 'round a 'simmon tree,
An' we know de possum's up dar scared as he c'n be,
Den we see dat fat ol' feller 'on de topmos' bough,
An' it's good by, Mr. Possam, 'cause we've got yo' now.

Dar's nothin' jist like possum, when he's roasted right,
Rimmed round wid sweet pertaters lookin' goldy-bright;
An' de little pickaninies, how dar eyes do shine,
Caysee dey smell dat possum roastin', an' he shore smells fine.

Now, hustle roun' de table, caysee de possum's done,
Dar's room f'r ev'rybody an' a place f'r ev'ryone;
Ho, dar, you saucy nigger, when's yo' pranks a gonna cease?
Yo' hid one in yo' pocket, so's yo'd git anudder piece.

NEWSPAPER FILES OF 1864 GIVEN TO THE STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY
Copies of a small newspaper printed at Fort Union, Dakota Territory, in 1864, containing the names and accounts of many historical events, have been presented to the State Historical Society by W. P. Moffet, lieutenant-colonel, U. S. A., of St. Paul, Minn. Capt. Moffet was an early resident of Bismarck and published a pioneer newspaper. His residence here is recalled by Captain Balk and others. Dr. M. R. Gilmore, curator of the historical society, sent Col. Moffet a letter of thanks for the contribution to the historical records of the society. The letter from Captain Moffet follows:

The Curator,
North Dakota Historical Museum,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

Sir: Very recently there came into my possession Nos. 2, 3, and 4 of Vol. I of the "Frontier Scout," a small 4-page paper printed at Fort Union, D. T., the dates being July 14, July 27 and August 17, 1864. The paper was published by Company I, 30th Wisconsin Volunteers. These copies contain references to well known pioneer names like Relette, Larpenre, Gerard, and Sully, and news mention of the investment of Richmond by General Grant, and the nominations of Lincoln and Johnson, and Fremont and Cochran for President and Vice President. Also accounts of several Indian fights in the vicinity of Ft. Union.

If the North Dakota Historical Society would like to have these papers I will gladly send them to you.

Very sincerely etc.,
W. P. Moffet,
Lieut. Col. Cavalry, U. S. Army.

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS
By Olive Barton Roberts

"Yes," said Buskins, "we shall have to be very careful and not knock any of the growing balloon people off the trees. They never grow a bit after they fall."

Suddenly Nancy had to sneeze. "Kerchoo, kerchoo!" she went twice. Instantly a voice overhead snapped out:

"There! I knew you'd do it. Now, I'm going to fall off. I'm slipping! Yes, I feel my stem giving."

"I was sure something would happen!" Here I've been hanging on by the skin of my teeth for the last week. If I drop, the balloon man is sure to get me, then he'll take me off to the earth to a country fair or circus and sell me to a child who will either poke me into a fire or stick a pin into me. "I don't want to drop off! I won't drop off! I won't—I—I—I. Oh, catch me somebody! Quick! I'm going!"

But nobody did catch her and nobody ever would, for the balloon had hung onto the tree so long that he'd got overripe and the instant he touched the ground there was a loud explosion. He had blown up like a bomb!

"That's the way it is," said Buskins. "Often folks are so careful about keeping out of things that they don't notice that they are getting into worse trouble than ever."

"The old balloon was so afraid of making some child happy that he did not notice he was getting old and useless. It's too bad but it can't be helped."

"But we must be going, children. I want to take you to the City of Balloonatic. That's where the Fourth of July paper balloons all go when mortals send them up to the sky."

So Nancy got on her pink paper pig, Nick on his blue paper puppy and Buskins on his green elephant and away they went.

PEOPLE'S FORUM

Bismarck, Dec. 31, 1921.
Editor Tribune:
Last night's issue ran a write-up dated Fargo on poultry. It stated there were three million paying hens in the State and that each hen produced on the average of 60 eggs. I also have a good herd of high but not thoroughbred birds and my hens will run about from experience he would double and more the net profit.

I was at New Salem with the Rotary. I found there are many herds of cows there that run from 350 to over 400 pounds of butter per cow and am told by Max Morgan that he does not believe the general average 'cow over the state produces over 100 pounds.

Hence we farmers are clearly raising the lowest producers at the maximum cost. My present number of 35 hens are worth more to me than the 100 I used to have of the poor low grade.

MANDAN NOTES
COUNTY NURSE LEAVES MANDAN

Miss Edith Ekman who for the past fifteen months has been employed as county Red Cross nurse left Mandan yesterday to accept a position in the U. S. Public Health Service and will be stationed in hospital No. 68 at Minneapolis.

In the latter part of October when it was apparent that there would be much need for assistance especially in the country districts, Miss Ekman planned for systematic relief work, and with the cooperation of Mrs. H. Jess who devoted her time and other women who aided in collecting supplies clothing has been given 51 adults and 128 children. Donations were received not only from people in Mandan but from other cities in North Dakota and also from the twin cities.

Her many friends in Mandan and community regret to see Miss Ekman leave.

F. S. Hudson has returned from New Rockford where he spent the holidays with relatives.

Archie Olson has returned to the University of North Dakota at Grand Forks after spending the holidays with his parents.

Arthur C. Krase of Chicago, who has been a holiday guest at the J. C. Crosthwaite home, returned to his home yesterday morning.

Dr. I. R. Priske has gone to Minneapolis and other points in Minnesota for several weeks visit. He will also visit in Wisconsin.

Peter Iverson, who has been visiting at the I. C. Iverson home during the holidays returned to his home at Fargo yesterday.

Miss Eleanor Priske has returned from a visit with friends and relatives at Detroit, Minn., over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Newgard have returned to their home at Hoople, N. D., after spending the holidays in Mandan with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding have returned from Brainerd, Minn., where they spent the holidays with relatives. They also visited in Fargo.

Melvin Erickson who has been visiting during the holidays at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Erickson, left yesterday for Aberdeen, S. D., where he is employed as a traveling representative for the Standard Oil company.

Miss Euleta Crosthwaite entertained a company of friends at a watch night party at her home Saturday evening. Arthur C. Krase of Chicago who has been a guest at the Crosthwaite home was the guest of honor.

THE "MOTHER OF MEDICINE"
Isis, the Queen and afterwards the Goddess, was called the "Mother of Medicine." In ancient Egypt, centuries before Christ, women were skilled in medicine. They knew the great value of medicinal plants.

Hippocrates, the "Father of Medicine," many centuries later, knew less of the merit of vegetable drugs than did the women of ancient times.

Lydia E. Pinkham, nearly fifty years ago, gave to women her Vegetable Compound, now known everywhere as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This is a woman's medicine for woman's ailments, prepared from medicinal plants.—Adv.

Saint Paul Man Says Every Bone And Muscle Ached—Suffered Three Years

"Tanlac more than lived up to its reputation in my case and I'm strong for it," said W. H. Woods, 503 Rondo St., St. Paul, Minn.

There were times when every bone and joint in my body ached and it was impossible for me to get into a comfortable position. As a result I got little rest either day or night and my nerves gave way.

Eat Anything You Like and Don't Worry—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Relieve Sour Stomach, Belching, Gas and Acid Conditions Due to Indigestion

Simply Chew a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet After Meals—They Taste Good

No matter what you eat or drink, even though it be just a glass of sweet milk, the stomach may rebel and sour almost immediately. In such cases one or two Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets furnish the alkaline effect to offset the acid condition. Quite often the stomach may be overcrowded with partially digested food.

A cold bottle of beverage at such times may add to the difficulty and there is nervousness, a bilious taste, and other distress due to indigestion. Travelers may save themselves much of the discomfort of wayside eating by having a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with them as they can be had in almost any drug store throughout the U. S. and Canada. Adv.

REVENUE OFFICER TELLS JUST WHAT EXEMPTIONS ARE OFFERED BY NEW LAW

The following statement is issued by the Collector of Internal Revenue, Gunder Olson, district of North Dakota.

The Revenue Act of 1921 contains two new and important provisions, which are the subject of frequent inquiry. The first relates to the personal exemptions allowed married persons, and the second to the provisions requiring that a return be made of gross income of $5,000 or more.

The act provides that a married person, living with husband or wife, whose net income for 1921 was $5,000 or less shall be allowed a personal exemption of $2,500. If the net income of such person was over $5,000 the exemption is $2,000. Under the Revenue Act of 1918 the exemption allowed a married person was $2,000, regardless of the amount of net income. The normal tax rate remains unchanged, 4 per cent on the first $1,000 of net income above the exemptions and 8 per cent on the remaining net income.

In order that an income slightly in excess of $5,000 shall not be subjected to an inordinately disproportionate tax because of the reduction of the exemption to $2,000, thereon, the law provides that such reduction shall not operate to increase the tax, which would be payable if the exemption were $2,500, by more than the amount of the net income in excess of $5,000.

FARM WOMEN OVERWORKED? THEY SAY NOT

Chicago, Jan. 4—Protests by farm women against being called overworked and downtrodden have followed steps taken by the American Farm Bureau federation for a national organization of women on the farm.

"Farm women in numbers are beginning to realize the harmful effect of this old-fashioned publicity," declares Mrs. Izzetta Brown of Kingwood, W. Va., a leader in this movement.

"The farm women who have awakened to their own possibilities say quite frankly that they want to start a campaign of optimism about country life. They don't want to be pitied, nor patronized, just understood—and if possible, a little idealized." They would appreciate it for a change.

For the first time the movement is general all over the United States for farm women to join the farm clubs of various sorts, Mrs. Brown reports.

"By working in clubs in various communities the farm women have learned the value of organized efforts in improving country life conditions," she said.

"I know of one little community of about 75 families in West Virginia where the school teacher and others had talked for years about piping running water into the school house from a spring just up the hill. The first year after the farm women organized into a club they saw to it that the spring water was piped into the school."

"There is something easy to be done in each community that will improve living and social conditions and each little success is leading the enterprising farm women on to higher ideals."

"They are realizing their power in bringing about better school conditions for their children and each time anything is done to make the boys and girls happier and more content, the mothers know they are increasing the chances of holding the children on the farm."

"I think that is the keynote of the rebellion against the 'downtrodden and overworked' publicity. The mothers

"DIAMOND DYES" SUCCESS SHOWS WORTH OF ADS

Somebody out of touch with truth, once and there is no sentiment in business. Another greater wisdom declared: "They profit most who survive best."

All this year a concern that help a put forth a plan of advertising for a national business is collecting a series of successful service of the world. Diamond Dyes is a half a century old and the are having a series of happy episodes to make the anniversary a noteworthy one.

Diamond Dyes is a home example of the power of advertising for a plant of small beginnings has grown to a city block. The business is built on making good the advertising that has made Diamond Dyes a household. Possibly the great asset of this proved and to economy is the word-of-mouth of families that run through generations. Young men tell that their mothers and grandmothers before them, were Diamond Dyes customers. Thus like the Diamond service plan which makes it clear that for a few cents it is easy to do old things new.

The Wills & Richardson people are going to make the golden jubilee of Diamond Dyes a nation wide. They will do this by the biggest newspaper advertising appropriation ever made in the fifty years of service.

BISMARCK WINS FROM DRAKE

Team Victorious 15 to 13 in Close and Hard-fought Game

Bismarck high school's scrappy basketball team took Drake into camp last night at Drake, winning by a 15 to 13 score. At the end of the first half the score was 6 to 3 in favor of Bismarck.

It was the first defeat of Drake out of five starts. The team fought hard against the Bismarck team, but lacked the skill to finally win a victory, missing many shots in the last half. The Bismarck team worked in fine shape. Bismarck meets Washburn this evening and Thursday at Wilton.

A message received from the Bismarck boys stated that the boys would be glad if any fans who wish to drive to Wilton to see the game would have space in their cars for bringing the players back. Otherwise the team will have to remain over night and wait hours for a train.

BILLY EVANS GIVES INSIDE DOPE ON DANFORTH

BY BILLY EVANS.

What will Dave Danforth do for the St. Louis Browns? Danforth, as every fan knows, is the pitcher for whom the St. Louis American League club gave 11 players.

It was seven come eleven with Business Manager Bobby Quinn of the Browns before he was able to put over the deal.

Bob originally had seven players in mind, who he was willing to pass over, but Manager Rowland of the Browns club expressed a preference for 11.

Sounds like shooting "craps" instead of a baseball deal.

Danforth, because of the unique trade in which he figured, will go down in the baseball records as the "one-man team." To secure his services the St. Louis Browns were really forced to turn over a good minor league ball club.

Bobby Quinn, who with Lee Fohl arranged the deal, has always been regarded as a fox trader. It will be recalled that it was Quinn who sent Danforth to New York for Shocker, Gleason and a few others and a lot of cash.

What a whale of a deal that was for St. Louis! Joe Gleason proved more than a worthy successor of Pratt. Shocker is today one of the best pitchers in the game.

In his deal with New York several years ago, Quinn received a lot of players for a few. In his very latest deal he has gone to the other extreme. He gives 11 for one.

"If Danforth wins 15 ball games for the St. Louis Browns," I figure it will be a great deal from a St. Louis standpoint," says Quinn.

Fohl is Conservative.

"If Danforth can win me a dozen ball games, I will be satisfied," says Fohl. "The players we have included in the deal should go big in the minors, but I don't believe I could figure on all of them turning in more than 12 wins."

The fact that Danforth has had two trials in the American league is what caused the trade to be so widely discussed. A lot of the critics figured St. Louis was taking a long chance on a pitcher who had twice failed.

Charley Herzog, once a big league star, played in the American Association with Danforth last year. I asked Herzog at the New York meeting what he thought of Danforth's chances.

"I am sure he will help St. Louis," said Herzog. "He has a great fast ball. He is almost over-head when pitching against right-handers, and is constantly side-arming the left-handers. He gets a hop on his fast ball that is most puzzling. If Fohl will be satisfied with a dozen games won from Danforth he can count on that many right now."

In the American League when Danforth was with Chicago he was viewed with suspicion by opposing batters. In the language of the player, Dave was a "cheater." That means he deceived the ball in various ways to get the old hop on his fast one.

Despite this belief on the part of the players American League umpires were never able to find anything wrong with his delivery. Danforth has very long fingers and a good sized hand. He can almost encircle the ball. This enables him to get unusual purchase on the ball which no doubt accounts for the "zip" on his fast one.

Manager Rowland, who had Danforth, says "Dave is an entirely different pitcher. He lost his fast ball in the American League because he was always in the bull pen warming up. Likewise I want to go on record in the strongest possible manner that Danforth in no way tampers with the ball. He will easily win 15 games for Fohl."

We shall see.

THIS WAS A TOUGH BREAK FOR PLAYER AND OWNER

President Lane of the Salt Lake team is one individual who is mighty sorry the coast league helped to promote the winter league.

"The California Winter League kept me from disposing of one of my players to the majors," remarked Mr. Lane at the major league meeting in New York.

"One of my players by the name of Signin had a mighty big year and looked ripe for a chance in the majors. His uniformly good work throughout the season had attracted the attention of the scouts and a deal had practically been closed.

"Just when I was about ready to finish the deal the winter league was launched and Signin was announced as one of the players who would perform.

"The club that was after him decided to hold up the deal pending a chance to look him over during the coast league season. One of the players from that club was booked to play on the same club as Signin.

"Unfortunately for Signin, also myself, he suffered a reversal of form.

Similar lesson might be taken from the record of the Cleveland club. Inability of Bagby and Mails to come through spoiled the big chance of the Indians.

The decision of Judge Landis, which deprived the New York Yankees of two such great hitters as Babe Ruth and Bob Meusel until May 20, was a severe blow. A lot of pessimistic critics immediately counted the Yankees out of the running in 1922.

I feel that such a belief is rather premature. The Yankees will miss Ruth and Meusel. The New York owners however have taken steps to remedy the loss of the two star outfielders. The addition of Sam Jones and Joe Bush to the pitching staff should more than overcome the loss of Ruth and Meusel.

The former Boston stars should be able to carry the burden until the return of Ruth and Meusel. When the Landis suspension is lifted, look out for the Yankee smoke. A team with the hitting and fielding of the Yankees plus the excellent pitching it should

Sport Angle

Dartmouth has been given a date on the Harvard football schedule for 1922.

That statement doesn't mean very much to the average football enthusiast. However it means much to Dartmouth as a college, and Major Frank Cavanaugh, now football coach at Boston College.

Back in 1911 Dartmouth held Harvard to a 5 to 3 score. It was a terrific struggle in which Harvard was forced to the limit to win. The game was a very rough one.

In 1912 Dartmouth had another great team. Harvard had all kinds of trouble winning 3 to 0, despite the great strength of the Crimson eleven. A drop kick by Charley Brickley was the only score of the game.

The following year Dartmouth was dropped from the Harvard schedule. One of the reasons given was Dartmouth's team was entirely too strong for the position given it on the schedule.

The dropping of Harvard was also the occasion of a highly unjustified attack on Frank Cavanaugh, then coach at Dartmouth. He was accused of instructing his players to get the Harvard stars. While the game was rough, Dartmouth suffered even more than Harvard, so it would seem the Crimson players were also a bit straggled.

The return of Dartmouth to the Harvard schedule after a nine-year absence, is pleasing to the alumni of that institution and Major Cavanaugh.

It would seem that Major Cavanaugh was a trifle too efficient as a coach for the so-called "big three." His eleven of 1911 and 1912 at Dartmouth forced Harvard to the limit.

After leaving Dartmouth, Cavanaugh went to Boston College. In two successive years he beat Yale, who immediately dropped Boston College, as Harvard had dropped Dartmouth.

BOOSTER FOR HIS HOME TOWN

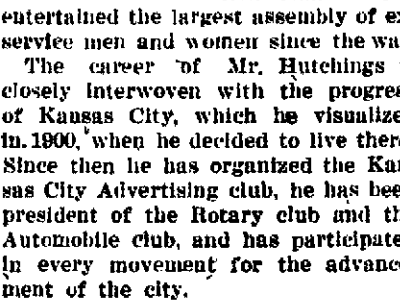

Bert Hutchings Served as General Chairman for Legion at Kansas City.

"If there is anything going on for the good of Kansas City, Bert Hutchings is usually the motive power behind it."

This is a common remark in Kansas City regarding Albert E. Hutchings, general chairman of the third annual convention of the American Legion, under whose direction Kansas City entertained the largest assembly of ex-service men and women since the war.

The career of Mr. Hutchings is closely interwoven with the progress of Kansas City, which he visualized in 1890, when he decided to live there. Since then he has organized the Kansas City Advertising club, he has been president of the Rotary club and the Automobile club, and has participated in every movement for the advancement of the city.

During the World war he was given the immense task of organizing the Liberty loan campaigns in the Tenth Federal Reserve district, but civilian service was not enough for him when his country was involved in a war. He organized a Seventh Missouri National Guard company, and served as its captain. Later he was transferred to the motor transport corps of the regular army, serving at Camp Meigs and Camp Merritt, in command of headquarters motor command No. 38.

AFTER THE FAKE PROMOTERS

American Legion on Watch to Detect and Expose Organizations Victimizing Ex-Service Men.

The harpies who prey on public sympathy and the vampires who attach themselves to every legitimate and worthy campaign for the relief of human distress, have been flying in flocks behind the trudging army of job-hunting ex-service men. The police courts are piling the sordid operations of scores of avaricious persons who have been conducting money-raising campaigns on a get-rich-quick basis, on the pretense of assisting unemployed World war veterans. Some of these fly-by-night promoters have formed large organizations, using as dupes veterans who are, themselves, honest, but have been induced by urgent need to grasp at the straw of a job which the swindler dangles before them.

Behind a shield of plausibility, the promoter sends his money solicitors out upon the public. Needless to say, little of the money raised actually is used to assist the unemployed ex-service men. The promoter takes good care to see that his account books, if he keeps any, never record the full amounts which have been extracted from the sympathetic public. And if he makes a pretense of accounting for the way the money is expended, this accounting is only a clever construction of falsities, intended to protect the promoter, if he is made the subject of inquiry by public officials. The system by which he operates precludes honesty.

These swindlers often copy the names and methods of organizations which are legitimate and have reputable sponsors. The names the employment swindlers select for their organizations only too often inspire public confidence because they may easily be confused with those of long-existing public charitable societies. The American Legion is constantly on the watch to detect, expose and prosecute organizations victimizing ex-service men. The public should come to know that any organization ostensibly for the help of unemployed veterans should be regarded suspiciously if it does not have the Legion's endorsement.—American Legion Weekly.

OPPONENTS FOR DEMPSEY ARE MIGHTY SCARCE

Who will be Jack Dempsey's next opponent?

Fred Fulton is being prominently mentioned.

It will be recalled that Fulton didn't last very long against Dempsey in their previous meeting.

After the two fighters were introduced, they squared off, Dempsey cut loose a swing, and Fulton kissed the loo. Exit.

The latest in heavyweight circles is that Harry Greb of Pittsburgh will be the next fighter to dispute Dempsey's right to the title.

Greb will shortly meet Johnny Wilson, holder of the middleweight title. The bout will be staged at Madison Square Garden. Most of the critics feel sure that Greb will lift the crown.

The result of that bout alone, is holding up the proposed Dempsey-Greb go. If Greb loses to Wilson, then such a bout would have no drawing power. However, if he wins the middleweight title, such a meeting would attract wide attention. A lot of people will scoff at the idea of Greb meeting Dempsey. Greb has a much better chance than did Corbett. He is bigger and sturdier than the European champion.

While Dempsey's physical advantage would make him a big favorite over Greb, still the bout wouldn't be as lopsided as it seems.

Remember Bob Fitzsimmons was never much more than a middleweight, if you merely consider poundage.

FORMER BIG LEAGUE STAR LAUDS TIGER RECRUITS

Duffy Lewis, former big league star, who will manage Salt Lake City in the Pacific Coast League next season, believes Detroit has picked up two promising pitchers in Pilleto and Johnson.

"The two pitchers secured by Detroit have great promise," said Lewis in discussing the purchase, "but I hardly think they will show major league class right off the reel."

"We play fast ball on the coast. A lot of people say it is as fast as played in the American and National. I always like to be loyal, but I wouldn't be exactly telling the truth if I made that assertion."

"They figured I was through in the American League, yet I went out to the coast and batted better than 400. Years ago it seems all the major league clubs waived on Sacco Crawford. I went out to the coast and is still one of the best hitters in the organization. You can draw your own conclusions."

"Pilleto and Johnson are both great pitchers in the coast league. Possibly they will keep right on delivering in the American, but I have my doubts. I think both of them will find the class of batters a trifle different and discover a little more experience necessary."

"Both Detroit recruits are big fellows with plenty of stuff. They both sidarm most of the time, which makes their delivery difficult to hit. Pilleto is much like Faber of Chicago in his style and any one who has ever seen Faber pitch knows that means something."

"It may not be any boost for them to say that I found both of them mighty hard to hit. I think Pilleto right now is the more advanced of the two. Johnson, however, was the toughest bayer for me to hit safely. He had me constantly hitting those pop flies to the infield that make the fans yell for your scalp."

"Mr. Navin of Detroit paid a fancy price, took a big gamble, but my opinion of the two pitchers is that it will prove worth while."

FIRELESS COOKER IS USEFUL

As Most Promising Pullets Are Only Fowls to Carry Through Winter Nonproducers and Cockers Can Be Made Use Of.

(Prepared by United States Department of Agriculture.)

Full is the time to enjoy chicken frequently on the table, whether home-killed or purchased. In fact it is customary to eat it in one form or another, keeping only the most promising young pullets to carry through the winter. Poultry should be plentiful now, especially the old fowls, which are no longer expected to lay well, and the young cockers, many of which are tender enough to roast. The home flock should also receive attention, and the nonproducing birds should be culled out to save feed.

The United States Department of Agriculture suggests cooking the less tender chickens in the fireless cooker. It is best to disjoint the chicken when it is to be prepared in this way. Pinfeathers, the oil sac, and surplus fat should be removed and the fine hairs singed. After being well washed the parts may be put immediately into boiling water sufficient to cover them and seasoned to taste.

The chicken should be simmered half an hour and then put into the fireless cooker, where it should remain at least two hours and as much longer as is necessary to cook it tender. It should not be left in the cooker long enough to boil, even to the lukewarm stage, for at such temperature bacteria in it may develop and cause food poisoning. Many cooks consider that a clove of garlic in the stewing water gives an almost imperceptible flavor, which improves the fluffiness of ordinary boiled chicken. A small onion is sometimes made to answer the same purpose, but too much onion destroys the delicate flavor of the chicken.

How to Use Cooked Chicken.

After the meat is sufficiently tender it may be prepared for the table in several different ways. A gravy may be made in the proportion of one tablespoonful of melted chicken fat, one tablespoonful of flour, and one cupful of the broth in which the chicken was cooked, with additional salt and pepper if necessary. The chicken is reheated in this economical and well-flavored gravy, shortly before serving time, or the pieces of chicken in the gravy may be brought to the boiling point and put back in the fireless cooker till wanted.

To make creamed chicken, a medium thick white sauce is prepared, instead of a gravy. A standard recipe calls for two tablespoonfuls of butter, two tablespoonfuls of flour, one cupful of milk, one-half teaspoonful of salt, and one-eighth teaspoonful of pepper. The meat is cut from the bones in rather large pieces. A few bits of green pepper and, if obtainable, some chopped mushrooms, are a pleasant addition to plain creamed chicken, which may be served in a border of rice or mashed potatoes, on split biscuits or toast. Either the white sauce or chicken gravy may be used with the boned cooked chicken meat to make a chicken pie. A deep pudding dish is good for this, and biscuit crust may be used instead of a pastry top, if preferred.

Savory Chicken Stew.

6 tomatoes or one 1 medium-sized chicken.
No. 2 can tomatoes.
2 sweet red peppers. 3 slices bacon cut in small cubes.
3 sweet green peppers cut in small cubes, or one No. 2 teaspoonful malt. 2 can peppers. 2 tablespoonful butter or bacon drippings.
Dress the fowl and cut into joints. Melt the fat, add onion and pepper. Cook for a few minutes to develop flavor. Then add salt, tomato and ham and simmer for ten minutes. Place layers of the chicken, vegetable mixture, and ham in casserole until all is used. Pour over this one cupful of boiling water. Simmer for one-half hour and put in fireless cooker for three hours without the hot disk or two hours with it.
